6. Tasting of New Wines & Vintages

Thursday 3rd May 2018
6pm – 8.30pm

Every year, by late April, we will have tasted more than 500 wines from about 300 different appellations or Geographic indication from around the world. We will have made our decisions: delisted some wines and taken on board a selection of new wines from the recent harvest of 2015, 2016 and 2017. Now it is your turn. We ask you to be part of the Valvona & Crolla wine buyer team and come along and taste and tell us if we have made the correct decisions or not.

Tickets £13*

*Includes a 10% discount on all products purchased on the day

7. Romagna Bella Tasting

Thursday 17th May 2018
6pm – 8.30pm

Emilia-Romagna is one of the richest regions of Italy with regards to its gastronomic and wine making traditions. The region is known for Lambrusco wines and balsamic vinegar from Modena and Reggio Emilia. Parmigiano Reggiano is also produced in Reggio Emilia and the finest cured meats such as Parma's Prosciutto, Culatello and Pancetta and the famous Bologna Mortadella.

Come and join us on this gastronomic tour to discover the flavours of Emilia Romagna.

8. V&C Fine Italian Wine Tasting

Thursday 7th June 2018
6pm – 8.30pm

“Fine wines” mean top quality, local identity and terroir, tradition and modernity. The Italian ABC of the fine wine is perceived to be the likes of Amarone, Barolo, Brunello di Montalcino and Chianti Classico, Pinot Bianco and Greco di Tufo. But there are others as well.

Join us in this premium wine tasting and try some of the most appreciated wines in the world in one tasting.

9. Giancarlo Russo

Tutored Tasting Event

Friday 29th June
2018
6pm-8.30pm

We are delighted to welcome back Giancarlo Russo, Professor of Gastronomy, after last year's oversubscribed and well received tastings. His expertise in pairing food with wine is unrivalled. We will be tasting five new in season spring cheeses from Tuscany and Sardinia together with five delicious new season wines. Prof. Russo's tastings are always informative, sometimes controversial and certainly great fun!
